

Join us in July 2009, for this historic tour and conference:

THE CALVIN QUINCENTENARY

In Paris, Strasbourg, Bern and at Geneva's St. Pierre Cathedral

The Calvin Quincentenary is an international, interdenominational, and interdisciplinary commemoration of the life and work of John Calvin (b. 1509), which left such an indelible impression on the modern world. Climaxing with conferences in multiple locations in 2009, this celebration combines history, spirituality, and culture to recall appropriately the life and work of the Genevan Reformer.

Esteemed leaders, scholars, and ministers will serve as your guides to learning about this influential man, his vibrant city, and the cultural, religious, political, and economic impact flowing from a movement. This multi-faceted approach seeks to introduce many people to one of the most important thinkers in history.

Our esteemed conference speakers are listed to the right.

If you have been looking for a great opportunity to tour Reformation highlights while also learning from some masters, this is the best shot for hundreds of years for hundreds of people to come together. Please consider joining us for this first-class tour and the conference celebrations of John Calvin.

Conference Speakers

Joel Beeke, PhD
Henri Blocher, PhD
Bryan Chapell, PhD
Iain D. Campbell, PhD
R. Scott Clark, DPhil
Ted Donnelly
Ligon Duncan, PhD
William Edgar, PhD
Sinclair Ferguson, PhD
Richard Gamble, PhD
W. Robert Godfrey, PhD
Darryl Hart, PhD
Michael Haykin, PhD
Martin Holdt, PhD
Terry L. Johnson, DMin
Hywel R. Jones, PhD
Douglas Kelly, PhD
Robert Kingdon, PhD
Anthony N. S. Lane, PhD
Steven Lawson, DMin
Peter Lillback, PhD
William McComish, PhD
Bruce McCormack, PhD
James McGoldrick, PhD
Andrew McGowan, PhD
Hughes O. Old, PhD
Philip Ryken, DPhil
Herman Selderhuis, PhD
Derek Thomas, PhD
Geoffrey Thomas
Carl Trueman, PhD
John Witte, Jr., JD

For Travel Details and more information visit us online:
www.CALVIN500.org

Join us in July 2009, for this historic tour and conference:

THE CALVIN QUINCENTENARY

*In Paris, Strasbourg, Bern and
at Geneva's St. Pierre Cathedral*

The Calvin Quincentenary is an international, interdenominational, and interdisciplinary commemoration of the life and work of John Calvin (b. 1509), which left such an indelible impression on the modern world. Climaxing with conferences in multiple locations in 2009, this celebration combines history, spirituality, and culture to recall appropriately the life and work of the Genevan Reformer.

Esteemed leaders, scholars, and ministers will serve as your guides to learning about this influential man, his vibrant city, and the cultural, religious, political, and economic impact flowing from a movement. This multi-faceted approach seeks to introduce many people to one of the most important thinkers in history.

Our esteemed conference speakers are listed to the right.

If you have been looking for a great opportunity to tour Reformation highlights while also learning from some masters, this is the best shot for hundreds of years for hundreds of people to come together. Please consider joining us for this first-class tour and the conference celebrations of John Calvin.

Conference Speakers

Joel Beeke, PhD
Henri Blocher, PhD
Bryan Chapell, PhD
Iain D. Campbell, PhD
R. Scott Clark, DPhil
Ted Donnelly
Ligon Duncan, PhD
William Edgar, PhD
Sinclair Ferguson, PhD
Richard Gamble, PhD
W. Robert Godfrey, PhD
Darryl Hart, PhD
Michael Haykin, PhD
Martin Holdt, PhD
Terry L. Johnson, DMin
Hywel R. Jones, PhD
Douglas Kelly, PhD
Robert Kingdon, PhD
Anthony N. S. Lane, PhD
Steven Lawson, DMin
Peter Lillback, PhD
William McComish, PhD
Bruce McCormack, PhD
James McGoldrick, PhD
Andrew McGowan, PhD
Hughes O. Old, PhD
Philip Ryken, DPhil
Herman Selderhuis, PhD
Derek Thomas, PhD
Geoffrey Thomas
Carl Trueman, PhD
John Witte, Jr., JD

For Travel Details and more information visit us online:
www.CALVIN500.org

The TOUR...

Our tour begins in France, the country of Calvin's birth. Starting off with a three-night stay in the magnificent French capital, Paris, we'll have opportunities to get acquainted with some of the city's historic churches and world-class museums. We'll also make excursions to Noyon, the little town where Calvin was born; the amaz-ing Chateau deVersailles; and Orleans, the scenic city where Calvin studied law. Then, we'll head for Reims to see its wonderful old cathedral, and we'll spend a night in Strasbourg. Calvin was exiled here from 1538 to 1541, during which time he pastored a congregation of French refugees.

St. Pierre's Cathedral and the Calvin Musuem in Geneva.

Next, we'll cross the border into majestic Switzerland and pay a visit to Berne, seat of the Swiss Federal Gov-ernment. And now for Geneva where we'll have six nights and five full days to attend the Anniversary Confer-ences and get acquainted with the vibrant city that is often called the "Rome of the Protestants." We'll also en-joy a cruise on the lake, an excursion to nearby Lausanne, an opportunity to visit the city's most important museums, and free time to explore on our own.

Throughout the tour and at the conferences, esteemed leaders, scholars, and ministers will illuminate Calvin's influence and the cul-tural, religious, and political impact flowing from his work. If you've been looking for a great opportunity to tour Reformation highlights while also learning from some of the finest experts on Calvin, this is the best shot for hundreds of years for hundreds of people to come together! The fellowship should be unparalleled.

There are multiple levels for hotel accommodation, and AN EARLY REGISTRATION DISCOUNT. Please visit our website for full details and registration: www.CALVIN500.org

Or to register directly: www.regonline.com/CALVIN500

The TOUR...

Our tour begins in France, the country of Calvin's birth. Starting off with a three-night stay in the magnificent French capital, Paris, we'll have opportunities to get acquainted with some of the city's historic churches and world-class museums. We'll also make excursions to Noyon, the little town where Calvin was born; the amaz-ing Chateau deVersailles; and Orleans, the scenic city where Calvin studied law. Then, we'll head for Reims to see its wonderful old cathedral, and we'll spend a night in Strasbourg. Calvin was exiled here from 1538 to 1541, during which time he pastored a congregation of French refugees.

St. Pierre's Cathedral and the Calvin Musuem in Geneva.

Next, we'll cross the border into majestic Switzerland and pay a visit to Berne, seat of the Swiss Federal Gov-ernment. And now for Geneva where we'll have six nights and five full days to attend the Anniversary Confer-ences and get acquainted with the vibrant city that is often called the "Rome of the Protestants." We'll also en-joy a cruise on the lake, an excursion to nearby Lausanne, an opportunity to visit the city's most important museums, and free time to explore on our own.

Throughout the tour and at the conferences, esteemed leaders, scholars, and ministers will illuminate Calvin's influence and the cul-tural, religious, and political impact flowing from his work. If you've been looking for a great opportunity to tour Reformation highlights while also learning from some of the finest experts on Calvin, this is the best shot for hundreds of years for hundreds of people to come together! The fellowship should be unparalleled.

There are multiple levels for hotel accommodation, and AN EARLY REGISTRATION DISCOUNT. Please visit our website for full details and registration: www.CALVIN500.org

Or to register directly: www.regonline.com/CALVIN500